

UPDATES

NSF revised its Proposal and Award Policies and Procedures Guide, including Part One, the Grant Proposal Guide; the revisions went into effect as of January 14, 2013. The first few pages of the GPG set forth a summary of the changes. NSF also revised its Grants.gov Application Guide, which also went into effect on January 14, 2013.

NSF has also begun automated compliance checking in FastLane to ensure all required sections of a full proposal are submitted. For further information, follow this link or contact OSP.

SWOSU's Financial Conflict of Interest policy was approved and is posted to the OSP website. The policy was devised to comport with regulations governing NIH and other Department of Public Health organizations that provide Public Health Service Funding. Major kudos to Dr. Lori Gwyn for drafting the policy and shepherding its approval. Further SWOSU policies regarding its implementation will follow — OSP will keep you advised.

OSP revised its Proposal Review and Compliance form. Please visit the OPS site for a new PRC form for any new proposals (we plan further additions to the form).

grant increments in FY 2013 will be awarded as scheduled, and there will be no impact on existing NSF standard grants. They say the same intent applies to annual increments for cooperative agreements though overall funding constraints may require reductions to certain major investments, which will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

National Institutes for Health: The NIH advises that they are taking every step to mitigate the effect of the cuts, but it is possible that grants or cooperative agreement awards may be affected. Based on their initial analysis, they advise that they may not issue certain continuation awards; may negotiate a reduction in the scope of certain awards; or may re-scope, delay, or cancel plans for new grants or cooperative agreements. The budget cuts do not affect grant or cooperative awards made with FY 2012 resources. They will contact those affected by the FY 2013 budget cuts.

NASA: NASA likewise advises that they are taking every step to mitigate the effects of the cuts, but existing grants, contracts, and cooperative agreements may be affected. They also advise that plans for new and existing work may be re-scoped, delayed, or canceled depending upon the nature of the work and the degree to which it directly affects NASA's mission goals. They will contact those affected by the budget cuts.

U.S. Dept. of Education: The Department of Education issued a statement as to impacts that sequestration will have on financial aid programs; insofar as grant-related projects are concerned, regrettably, they expect to cut TRIO programs, such as Upward Bound, by five percent for the remainder of FY 13.

GRANT WRITING WORKSHOPS

Search and Select Grant Resources

March 29, 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Oklahoma College Access Program – 840 Research Parkway, Suite 450, Oklahoma City

This workshop provides an overview of how to search for different kinds of grant resources. We will look for higher education research grants, higher education program grants, and community organization foundation grants. Participants will have more success by bringing a laptop and a flash drive to conduct searches.

There is no fee, but you must register to attend. Send your contact information and affiliation to lmason@osrhe.edu.

Beginning Grant Writing: The Process

April 5, 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Oklahoma College Access Program – 840 Research Parkway, Suite 450, Oklahoma City

This workshop is for persons who have not written a grant proposal or who want to write a grant proposal soon. The process of writing a grant will be covered. Participants will actually write and critique their writing in the workshop. A laptop and a flash drive are required.

There is no fee, but you must register to attend. Send your contact information and affiliation to lmason@osrhe.edu.

Professional Grant Development Workshop

Master the techniques of writing superior and winning proposals

April 8-10, 2013

8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Oklahoma State University

Sponsored by: The Grant Training Center

This intensive three-day grant proposal workshop is geared for: 1) those who wish to strengthen their grant writing skills and 2) beginners who wish to acquire and master the techniques of preparing, writing and winning proposals from various funding agencies. The center of attention will be on how to effectively write proposals in times of keen competition and limited resources. Much has happened in new regulations and in approaches to grant writing, be it for the researcher in the sciences and social sciences, education and non-profit professionals.

*Space is limited and, since this class fills-up quickly, it is on a first-come, first-served basis. Workshop Fee: $595.00 (including tuition, materials, certificate of completion, and continental breakfast). Rebate of $50.00 per person is given for two or more registrants from the same organization.

To enroll, click here, or call (866)-704-7268 or (571) 257-8864.

2013 OSRHE Grant Writing Institute

The Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education invites first-time and novice grant writers to participate in a summer Grant Writing Institute. The purpose of the Institute is to complete a grant proposal by the end of the week for submission soon thereafter. Participants will create a grant proposal concept, select a solicitation, and send all information regarding the proposal with the application.

Dates of Institute: July 29 to August 2

Institute begins at 3:00 pm on July 29 and ends at 1:00 pm on August 2. Days are 8:00 am to 8:00 pm.

Application Due Date: April 15, 2013
