OKLAHOMA RESEARCH DAY

Sixty students and twenty faculty members from Southwestern Oklahoma State University participated in the 16th annual Oklahoma Research Day held at the University of Central Oklahoma (UCO) in Edmond, Oklahoma, on March 7, 2014.

Oklahoma Research Day provides an opportunity for all Oklahoma university students and faculty from all disciplines to showcase their research activities. SWOSU students and faculty presented more than 45 projects.

The event was sponsored by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education (OSRHE), the Oklahoma Experimental Program for Stimulating Competitive Research—National Science Foundation, the Oklahoma IDEa Network for Biomedical Research Excellence—National Institutes of Health, and Oklahoma Regional Universities. It was organized by the Office of the Provost, Academic Affairs, of UCO in cooperation with the Council on Research for Regional Universities and the UCO Office of Research and Grants.

The 2014 Oklahoma Research Day also featured a number of prominent speakers including Dr. Glen D. Johnson, Chancellor for OSRHE; Dr. Don Betz, President of UCO; Dr. John Barthell, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs for UCO; Dr. Gregory M. Wilson, Assistant Vice President, Office of Research and Grants at UCO; and keynote speaker Mr. James Milt Heflin, Jr., retired official from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

5TH ANNUAL PROMOTING UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH CONFERENCE

The 5th Annual Promoting Undergraduate Research Conference will take place on April 11th from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Presbyterian Health Foundation Conference Center in Oklahoma City.

To present an abstract, please go to <http://bit.ly/1cX0iL4>. The 2014 conference will revisit effective models of inquiry with a focus on community engagement, effective models of assessment of undergraduate research outcomes and student retention, and examine student research projects illustrating these models.

To attend the conference without presenting, please contact Dr. Linda Mason, Coordinator of Grant Writing for OSRHE, by phone at 405-225-9486 or by email at lmason@osrhe.edu. Contact OSP to receive more information about this event.

21ST ANNUAL SWOSU RESEARCH AND SCHOLARLY ACTIVITY FAIR

Come and join us at the 21st Annual Research and Scholarly Activity Fair on April 15th from noon to three in the Student Union Ballroom! This event is a chance for SWOSU faculty and students to share with the university and community their endeavors as well as provide a forum for students to investigate multiple disciplines in one place.

To find out more about the fair, or to submit an abstract, please visit www.swosu.edu/osp/fair. The last chance to submit an abstract is this Saturday, March 15th.

As in the past, we have arranged a scavenger hunt to get more students involved with the presentations. For those of you interested in contributing toward the scavenger hunt prize selection, please let OSP know before April 11th.

CUR PROPOSAL WRITING INSTITUTE

The Council for Undergraduate Research Proposal Writing Institute will take place from July 17th-21st at the University of Alabama in Mobile, Alabama. This four-day institute assists faculty and administrators interested in preparing proposals for external funding agencies. The application deadline for this event is May 22nd.

To apply for or find more information about the Proposal Writing Institute, please visit www.cur.org/conferences_and_events/institutes/proposal_writing_institute/. To receive updates directly from CUR, become a member for free at members.cur.org/members_online/members/newmember.asp and select SWOSU as your institution.
